

Biography - Stacey Hughes

Account Executive

National Grid

A twenty seven year employee at National Grid/Niagara Mohawk. Started as a meter reader and worked in various fields and management jobs including tree trimmer, revenue protection, budgeting and currently account management. Chosen for United Way Loaned Executive, Leadership Development Experience and Global Transformation Positions.

Achieved certification in Project Management (PMP) from the Project Management Institute, Building Operators Certification (BOC) from Northwest Energy Efficiency Council, co-lead the Capital District to a Clean Cities designation. Help out Bravehearts, a cancer camp for women, in various ways.