

Biography – Scott Osswald
Membership Development Manager
The Chamber of Schenectady County

Scott Osswald: prior to joining The Chamber of Schenectady County in early 2009 as Membership Development Manager, Scott spent 25 years in the daily newspaper business. His experience includes sales, marketing, and sales management. He is a life member and past president of The New York Newspaper Advertising and Marketing Executives.

Scott has a B.A. in Public Relations from Utica College of Syracuse University. He and his wife Michelle live in Glenville and have three adult children, Dayna, Ryan, and Derek. He enjoys everything outdoors including camping, hiking, fishing, hunting, and snowshoeing and extended canoe tripping.