Biography – Kathleen Slovic

I graduated from Siena College with a major in Marketing/Management. Shortly after graduating, I entered the health insurance industry as a customer service representative and was promoted to various positions in marketing, service, account management, audit, training, claims operations and even facilities. I am a recipient of the Call Center Manager of the Month award from Incoming Calls Management Institute.

I am married and have two daughters who attend SUNY Geneseo and SUNY Plattsburgh.
