

Biography – Peter C. Trimarchi

Attorney

Whiteman Osterman & Hanna LLP

Peter Trimarchi is an attorney at Whiteman Osterman & Hanna LLP. He is an Albany native and a graduate of Colonie Central High School ('90) and the University at Albany ('94). Mr. Trimarchi returned to the area in 2007 after attending law school in Buffalo (UB Law School '98) and living in New York City for nearly ten years. Mr. Trimarchi focuses his practice on environmental law, advising companies on both compliance matters and environmental issues arising from business transactions, including real estate transfers, lending transactions and mergers and acquisitions.

Mr. Trimarchi resides in Niskayuna, with his wife Kelly. Away from the workplace, he enjoys golf, hiking, traveling, and most especially, spending time with his two beautiful daughters, Sofia (3 years) and Chloe (11 months). He is happy to be back in the Capital District, and looking forward to getting reacquainted with his hometown through the Leadership Tech Valley program.
