Biography - Amiee S. Warfield

Amiee currently is the Coordinator for Financial Services at Schenectady County Community College. This position covers all money coming in and out of the College excluding the Foundation. Amiee oversees Accounts Payable, Payroll, Accounts Receivables, General Ledger and the Student Business Office. In addition, she coordinates and works closely with the auditors for the annual financial audit, and SUNY for the submission of the Annual Financial Report.

Prior to joining Schenectady County Community College, Amiee worked for the Navy Exchange in Virginia Beach in their Corporate Accounting Center for a year. Before that she was the Support Services Supervisor at the Navy Exchange in Groton, CT.

Amiee earned her Associates in Business Administration from Schenectady County Community College in 1991. She then went on to earn her Bachelors in Accounting from SUNY Brockport in 1993. Amiee is currently working on her Masters in Business Administration through Excelsior College. Amiee is on the Education Committee at her church. She is devoted to exposing her children to helping others and has taken her oldest to volunteer at the Regional Food Bank. In addition, around Christmas she has her children go through their toys and donates the unwanted toys to the YWCA Domestic Violence Shelter. Amiee currently resides in Scotia with her husband Steve and two daughters Belle and Shannon.
